Current role

Regional Director at Avaya, reporting to the VP of Services for the Americas. I lead a team of 80+ people and a US$ 10M+ business unit across the Caribbean and Latin America, with multicultural teams in Argentina, Brazil, Colombia and Mexico.

Focus & impact

20+ years turning customer feedback into operational strategy. I have led delivery transformations that improved margin, NPS and renewal, applying AI responsibly and at scale.

Who I work with

CEOs and executive boards · CIOs and CTOs · CFOs · CMOs · CX, Innovation and AI leaders.

Purpose

I BELIEVE THAT · customer experience is a company's greatest value lever — done well, it stops being a cost and starts driving growth.

THAT IS WHY · I connect strategy, technology and multidisciplinary, multicultural teams to make every decision smarter and every operation more resilient.

DELIVERING · customer experience turned into real business value: more margin, retention and sustainable growth across Latin America.
